

I fully support this long overdue proposition to clarify the area of this amateur band for specific mode use. This will greatly increase efficiency and reduce conflict, and put this band in line with all the other HF amateur bands.